

PRELIMINARIES TO 1920 CAMPAIGN OPENED BY HAYS

Reconstruction, Loyalty and Congress Discussed

(By The Associated Press.) ST. PAUL, Minn., March 7.—H. H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, opened the preliminary to the 1920 presidential campaign in the Twin Cities today and tonight. Hays was the leading figure in a series of meetings and conferences today, talked straight politics and strongly argued for an extra session of congress in a luncheon address in Minneapolis at noon; talked with prominent Republicans from Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and Montana at St. Paul, and Minneapolis and was whisked to the state capital late this afternoon where he spoke before a joint session of the legislature. Mr. Hays, U. S. senator from Minnesota, and Governor Frank B. Kellogg and Vernon J. A. Burquist were the principal speakers at the north star rally tonight. Hays discussed reconstruction, loyalty and congress. Kellogg reviewed Republican achievements during the war and dwelt upon the league of nations and Burquist in delivering an address of welcome to the chairman of the national committee assailed the Non-Partisan league and George Creel, chairman of the committee on public information.

Follow the Flag. "We have always said that we must follow the flag and keep it to the music of the Union," said Hays at the outset of his address tonight. "The Republican party has not only followed the flag and kept step to the music of a union—the Republican party has carried the flag and made it a banner for the Union. "We will not forget that while we fight to make certain the rights of free government in this world we have a republic to preserve in this country; that we are representative government, not Bolshevik synecdoche; that while there is nothing in this country we would not take and use necessary war purposes such as must be for war purposes. The Republican party stands against undue federalization of industries and activities. There must be strong federal legislation to end federal ownership. "Let us not for a moment lose sight of our own supreme nationalism. While we seek earnestly and practically for methods lessening future wars, and all go far indeed in an honest effort to that end, we will accept of indefinite internationalization as a substitute for fervent American nationalism. "Governor Burquist said he was glad to have the opportunity to call "some recent misrepresentations made by the chairman of the federal committee on public information which reflect upon the good name of our state."

George Creel Assailed. "George Creel accuses the citizens and officials of this state of persecuting, during the war, certain elements of our people for political purposes," said the governor and he referred to statements in Creel's articles as "innumerable allegations" and "malicious fabrications."

Governor Burquist denied that the Minnesota public safety commission had prohibited the Non-Partisan League from holding meetings in Minnesota. Discussing the league of nations as outlined by the president, Senator Kellogg said:

"I am willing and anxious to have the league of nations a fair trial. But I recognize as all thoughtful men must, that any league should properly safeguard our political independence and the continuance of our American institutions and national rights. I hope there will come out of the league elements of a league of nations which shall be the rallying cry of hope to a war weary world."

Sentinel Kellogg said it was significant fact that European papers are claiming not only that the United States has abandoned the Monroe Doctrine, but that necessarily it must be abandoned if we are to have a league of nations.

"The Monroe Doctrine is a doctrine of self protection; it must be preserved," he declared.

TRYS TO TAKE OWN LIFE. St. Louis, March 7.—James J. Chalen, who says he was a major in the United States army until he was discharged two months ago is in the city hospital in a serious condition, the result of shooting himself in the chest to-day. He says he has a sister, Mrs. C. C. Simpson, at Modoc, Ill.

HEALTH CONDITIONS OF SOLDIERS GOOD. Washington, March 7.—Health of troops in the United States continues "very good," according to an official report covering the week ended Feb. 28, made public today by Surgeon General Trevelyan. A recrudescence of influenza and pneumonia was noted at Camp Taylor, Ky.

Germany Refuses Use Of Merchant Ships By Allies

(By The Associated Press.) PARIS, March 7.—Germany has refused the proposition for the use of her merchant ships by the allies, made to her delegates at Spa, the armistice commission's headquarters. The counter proposition is made by the Germans that they will release the German shipping desired in return for a definite assurance that enough food will be sent to Germany to enable the government to withstand the Bolshevik movement.

When the allied commission went to Spa it was believed that the release of the ships was merely a question of days. It was proposed to the Germans that in return for the use of the ships, a rental be paid, this to be entered to their credit against their food account.

The Germans, however, replied that this would be inadequate and that there must be a guarantee of steady, uninterrupted supply of food. No country was in position to supply this food under the German conditions, so the question of credit remains unsettled.

Shortage of Money. Only a relatively small amount of money is actually available in Germany and it is realized that this would be inadequate in the circumstances, so a survey is being made of German assets abroad as well as at home. There remain certain securities in Germany which she may pledge in payment, and there also are certain foreign assets, especially in Argentina, where German securities are held.

If the German proposal is agreed to the active government in the food supply must be the United States.

The disagreement over the ships began in January when the armistice commissions of the allies and the Germans met at Treves and the Germans explained they had not realized that the ships would be required under the armistice terms for food carrying. Because of the action of the American congress in declaring that none of its $100,000,000 appropriation for food should go to supply Germany. A telegram received from Spa this afternoon reported that the German delegation had returned to Weimar whence it sent a message stating it expected soon to have new instructions from its government to resume the negotiations.

Consideration of the situation here has given rise to the belief that the allied commission will be in a position to resume negotiations and effect an adjustment early next week.

It is stated that there is no disposition among the allies not to provision Germany, but that the means and methods are the only problem.

Hurley Comments. Washington, March 7.—Chairman Hurley of the shipping board declared tonight that the refusal of the German delegates to agree to the demands of the allies for the unconditional surrender of German merchant ships probably was caused by fear of the mutinous sailors at Bremen and Hamburg.

Mr. Hurley said that the sailors had objected strenuously to the proposal because they would not be allowed to man the ships under allied control.

"There would be nothing to prevent the allies from going in and taking the ships by force," said Mr. Hurley, "and I imagine the German delegates would rather see this done than be forced to commit themselves to a proposal which they knew would be opposed by the sailors."

COOK'S FATE IN HANDS OF JURY

(By The Associated Press.) CHICAGO, March 7.—The jury in the trial of John Norman Cook charged with the murder of William E. Bradley, middle-aged admirer of Cook's daughter Norma, was directed tonight after several hours deliberation to return a sealed verdict tomorrow. A report put in circulation at the criminal court building that the jury had reached a verdict of not guilty could not be confirmed, although it was believed by many.

The jury had been out less than four hours after receiving the case at 3:40 p. m., when the report of the acquittal was spread. Two hours earlier Judge Kersten had ordered the jury locked up to return a sealed verdict if one was reached to be read in court tomorrow.

The defendant and his counsel left the court room apparently confident of acquittal.

The prosecution had vigorously demanded conviction although the death penalty had not been directly asked.

SOLDIERS EFFICIENTLY CARED FOR. London, Thursday, March 6.—Via Montreal—Allied soldiers who are wounded in the fighting along the Murman coast front are cared for most efficiently, according to a Reuter dispatch. Dog teams and reindeer are used to take the wounded men from the front to Kem, where they are flown on a train which takes them to Murmansk.

All the soldiers wear clothing designed by Sir Ernest Shackleton and few cases of frost bite have been reported.

Representative Mondell of Wyoming, ranking member of the steering committee and a candidate for the leadership also said that he would favor Mr. Mann's continuance but the Illinois member reiterated that he would not offer for reelection.

Campbell, director-general of the allied war exposition. The collection will include tanks, airplanes, machine guns, air-planes and other devices used by the allied and German armies.

Hughes Charges Burleson With Misusing Powers

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 7.—Charles E. Hughes, appearing before the supreme court today as counsel for the Commercial Cable companies, charged that Postmaster General Burleson by taking control of the marine cable systems five days after the signing of the armistice, had misused the powers conferred by a joint congressional resolution had given the resolution an interpretation "foreign to the intention of congress," and had as an "ulterior motive" the forcing of government ownership of the cables.

The accusations of Mr. Hughes were generally denied by Solicitor General King who presented the case of the government asking that the court sustain the decrees of lower courts dismissing injunction proceedings brought by the two cable companies to prevent the postmaster general from taking over their cables and merging them with those of the Western Union Telegraph company. Mr. Hughes contended that altho the presidential proclamation under which the action was taken was dated Nov. 2, it actually was not signed until after hostilities ceased on Nov. 11.

In reply Mr. King asserted that the cables were taken over in reality on Nov. 2, when the proclamation was signed by the president but did not pass into the hands of the postmaster general until fourteen days afterwards. Seizure of the cables, Mr. Hughes said was not necessitated by the national security and defense, as President Wilson before the cables were taken over had declared before congress that the war had come to an end. He said there was involved in the seizure "a thought of governmental policy—a policy that congress never sanctioned."

Government control over the marine cable systems is more needed now than previous to the signing of the armistice, Mr. King argued. He pointed to the turn-over to the state department of an entire wire to Europe, the fact that American troops are now on German soil and that Germany and Austria are still at enmity with this country as sufficient proof that government supervision is needed.

New York Was Well Fortified Against Attacks

(By The Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 7.—Huge mortars standing on concrete emplacements and abundantly supplied with half ton projectiles, were erected during the war among the flowers and shrubbery of private gardens in New York City and elsewhere along the Atlantic coast, ready to repel the attacks of German naval or airships. Maximilian Toch, one of the first American engineers, told the New York section of the American Chemical Society here tonight.

Mr. Toch who directed several of the navy's important camouflage projects spoke with the consent of Secretary Daniels. He described how honeysuckles, morning glory and ivy, as well as plants had been employed to coat fortifications.

Ambrose Channel, the mouth of New York harbor was protected in addition to the guns in the regular army forts, by mortars having a range of twelve miles said Mr. Toch. Some of these auxiliary cannons he declared were placed two and a half miles inland on private estates and so concealed by arrangement of trees, shrubbery and flowers that the passersby were ignorant of their erection and even aviators found "little or no evidence" of their location. They were manned by army gun crews ready for instant action. The camouflage described also his work in disguising navy yards and docks along the Atlantic coast near the Pensacola and Key West basis which were exposed to attacks by German raiders and submarines operating in the South Atlantic.

The navy believed Mr. Toch asserted that the Germans had a secret base on the north coast of Cuba adding that "rich German firms in Havana were notoriously aiding the central powers," and that there were "more German spies and propagandists on the islands than in the United States."

Mr. Toch declared the army "did not take kindly to camouflage at the beginning of the war," and said that he had "great difficulty" in convincing army officers of the necessity of camouflaging fortifications adjacent to navy yards.

Improvement in Labor Situation. (By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 7.—Material improvement in the unemployment situation over the country is indicated by labor reports received by Arthur Woods, special assistant to Secretary Baker. Mr. Woods expressed the belief today that this improvement would continue. A majority of the discharged soldiers are finding positions for themselves, he said, and a large proportion of those out of work have made small effort to obtain jobs. A new and important element in the work of finding employment for the fighting men, Mr. Woods continued, is furnished by the definite and decided improvement wrought in each individual as a result of his military experience. To ask these men to take their old jobs he declared would be to require a step backward for them. He explained, however, that the government was proceeding on the theory that it would be better when practicable for each soldier to take his old place while awaiting a better opportunity.

Mr. Woods said that in finding jobs for soldiers every effort would be made to prevent the discharge of workmen now employed. He added that no discrimination would be made in the cases of women workers.

President Opposes Sinking German Ships. WASHINGTON, March 7.—President Wilson has written Representative Fuller of Massachusetts that he was opposed to the sinking of the surrendered German warships, but that his judgment was not final as he had not yet had the opportunity to discuss the matter with authoritative naval men. This he would do, he said, when he returned to Paris.

The president's letter, made public tonight by Mr. Fuller, said the proposal to destroy the warships seemed "like the counsel of those who do not know what else to do."

Japanese "Yank". Rochester, Ill., March 7.—Corporal Junjo Fukunoto, known as Camp Grant's Japanese "Yank," has been granted naturalization papers as a reward for his service in the United States army during the war period. Circuit Judge R. K. Welsh held that Military service entitled Fukunoto to have privileges of citizenship. Fukunoto was a Leland-Stanford student, registered for the draft at San Jose, Cal., and served in the medical corps at Camp Grant.

British Naval Estimates. London, Thursday, March 6.—The British naval estimates issued tonight provide for a personnel of 280,000 and a total expenditure for the year of £149,200,000. This sum includes £68,000,000 for ship building, repairs and maintenance.

Galveston, Texas, March 7.—Sailings from this port to Antwerp were resumed yesterday after suspension since 1914, with the departure of the Greystoke Castle, for the Belgian port.

TWO CABINET MEMBERS PLAN TRIPS TO EUROPE

Daniels Leaves Next Week and Baker April 1

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 7.—Secretary Daniels and a party of American naval experts will leave for Europe next week to discuss with allied naval officials the best type of capital warships to be built on the future based on the lessons gained in the great war. Because of conflicting opinions of the secretary has been asked to subject a definite recommendation to the next congress in December. It also was learned today that Secretary Baker would sail for Europe about April 1 to close up the business operations of the American expeditionary forces. He will be absent about six weeks and probably will arrive overseas before Secretary Daniels returns home.

Unique Situation. Thus President Wilson and the heads of both the army and navy probably will be away from the country at the same time—a situation which many officials said today was without precedent.

The naval secretary will be accompanied by Rear-Admirals Taylor, chief of the bureau of construction and repair, Griffin of the bureau of steam engineering, Bale, chief of the bureau of ordnance and Commander Foote, the personal aide. The party will be joined overseas by Admiral Benson, chief of the bureau of operations, who is attached to the American peace delegation and Vice-Admiral Sims, commanding all American naval forces in European waters.

Mr. Daniels and his party will sail from New York on the transport Leviathan a week from tomorrow and will go first to Paris to confer with the French admiralty. Later they will visit London and Rome.

While all deductions to be drawn from war experiences will be discussed in detail the American mission will address itself particularly to the question of future types of capital ships. It has been the judgment of the navy general board that the United States should continue to build dreadnaughts of constantly increasing power and battle cruiser.

This view is held by Admiral Fletcher, chairman of the general board. Admiral Mayo, Vice-Admiral Sims and Rear-Admiral Rodman, the three officers who have held the highest post of the American service in the war zone, believe however, that a composite ship, combining speed of a battle cruiser, with the gun power and arm of a battleship, should be substituted.

Secretary Daniels has not taken sides in the dispute. It is the secretary's purpose to give his three technical advisers a full opportunity to go into all of the involved technical questions as to design during the trip abroad.

This is Secretary Daniels first trip abroad.

Third Trip For Baker. Secretary Baker made two visits to France during the war and had planned a third one immediately after the signing of the armistice so as to give his personal attention to the settlement of the very big problems growing out of the presence abroad of millions of American soldiers. The decision of President Wilson to attend the peace conference, however, necessitated a delay and Edward R. Stettinius who was then in France as the personal representative of the secretary of war was entrusted with the negotiations looking to the disposition of the vast quantities of building material and other equipment which had been concentrated for the army in France.

Mr. Stettinius returned some weeks ago.

The war secretary hopes to be able to complete all the work in France in three weeks and get back to Washington by the middle of May. While he is overseas, Benedict Crowell first assistant to Mr. Baker will act as secretary of war.

PERSONNEL OF COURT MARTIAL BOARD. Camp Grant, Ill., March 7.—Announcement was made today of the personnel of the court martial board appointed by President Wilson for the second trial of thirteen Camp Grant negro soldiers, accused of having assaulted a Bloomingington, Ill. woman at the local cantonment last May. Col. Charles Young, senior colored officer of the United States army, commanding the development unit at Camp Grant will be the presiding officer.

NEAR REVOLUTION IN FINLAND. Christiania, March 7.—A strong revolutionary agitation is being carried out in Finland (the northernmost part of Norway) by an organization which is planned according to a report from Kirkenala to the Aftenposten. The organization plans to carry the revolution in Finland and Scandinavian countries.

President Wilson In Close Touch With Conference

(By The Associated Press.) PARIS, March 7.—[By The A. P.]—President Wilson is being advised daily by wireless of the developments of the peace congress so that when he arrives in Paris he will be about as fully informed as those who have attended the sessions of the council of the great powers.

The complete military, naval and aerial terms of the proposed peace treaty were sent to him textually by the American military and naval advisers with notations and reservations.

These details have not yet been made public so that President Wilson has a much more intimate knowledge of the situation than most of those attending the conference. The present plan is to complete the peace treaty March 20. In this case President Wilson would have only five or six days to consider the main objects of the treaty except for the wireless.

Arrangements for Arrival. Brigadier General William H. Harris, former military attaché at the white house has been given charge of arrangements for the president's arrival and stay in Paris. The plans are much the same as those for his former visit.

The French government will send a special train to Brest to meet the presidential party. The train will leave Brest for Paris at 5 o'clock in the evening arriving in Paris at 11 o'clock in the morning of the 14th.

French and American officials will meet the presidential party at the railway station and accompany President Wilson to a handsome mansion in the Place des Etats Unis, which the French government has placed at his disposal. President Wilson again will be the guest of the French nation in deference to the courteous insistence of the French authorities.

Much Work Ahead. The week following the president's arrival promises to be the most strenuous period of the conference. All committees have been ordered to have their reports in so that beside the military, naval, aerial and peace terms now before the council of the great powers there will be early the articles of the treaty on the responsibility of the former German emperor and others for starting the war, reparation for war damages; Germany's western front and all financial and economic questions.

These will be co-ordinated into the first draft of the treaty by the time President Wilson arrives. This draft will be subject to final revision during the week in which President Wilson resumes his seat with the council and it is expected this will be accomplished so as to permit delivery of the treaty to the Germans soon after March 20.

After this President Wilson will leave for Brussels and David Lloyd George, Premier of Great Britain, for England pending a determination by the Germans of their course of action.

Later on Thursday numbers of the men paraded in Rhyll. They made noisy demonstrations but committed no damage.

The outbreak began Tuesday night with the signal cry "come on Bolsheviks!" uttered by a man said to belong to the Canadian forces. A large number of men wrecked the stores building and thousands of loaves of bread were trampled into the mud. The women's auxiliary quarters were then rushed and the women's clothes carried off. The rioters seized stores of ammunition, fired on the officers' quarters and then began a march in the direction of Abergele, but were held up. A staff officer flew from the war office in London by air plane and addressed the men declaring that their grievance regarding demobilization especially which caused the outbreak should be immediately removed. He declared that ten thousand men would be away by the week after next and that four transports would be placed at the disposal of the colonials.

SPARTACANS TAKE TELEGRAPH OFFICE. LONDON, March 7.—When Spartacus forces captured the main telegraph office in Berlin Thursday, the members of the American Red Cross mission were endangered by the shooting, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Berlin. Colonel Taylor ordered the women with the mission to seek safety in the Palace hotel.

The American mission to look after the welfare of prisoners entrenched itself in the Hotel Adlon on behind a battery of machine guns. The battle for the telegraph office the dispatch adds was the worst Berlin has seen.

MANY KILLED IN RIOTS IN BRITISH MILITARY CAMPS

Result of Delay In Demobilization of Veterans

(By The Associated Press.) LONDON, March 7.—From eight to twenty seven persons are estimated to have been killed and from 25 to 73 wounded in rioting during the past three days at the Rhyll military camp at Rhyll, Wales, according to a Liverpool dispatch received here tonight. Great property damage was caused the dispatch adds.

According to latest reports from Liverpool the riot was started by about 200 malcontents. There were 25,000 Canadians in the camp awaiting demobilization and embarkation. The men who caused the trouble were war casualties who have served for three years or more in France. They complained that their embarkation had been postponed while other men who had seen less service were sent home.

After the destruction of stores of all kinds on Tuesday by the discontented men the situation took a more serious turn Wednesday when the cavalry was called out but was forbidden to use its arms.

Troops from Chester intercepted the rioters in their march upon Abergele, near Rhyll, and also prevented a threatened raid on the latter place. Five men were killed and forty injured in the course of this fighting. It is reported. There was further promiscuous shooting early Tuesday morning but at no time was there organized firing by any armed party. Most of the deaths were due to crushing, it is said. An unnamed major holding the Victoria cross and believed to be from New Brunswick is reported to have been virtually trampled to death while attempting to defend the officers' quarters against great odds.

Canadians Restore Order. The Daily Mail says the Canadian authorities restored order without the assistance of British troops and declares that the matter is solely one for Canadian disciplinary action.

The Canadian officials have informed the war office that they do not desire any increase in shipping facilities as a consequence of the outbreak, as they do not intend to be coerced by the action of the rioters. It is stated that the rioters are the righted men, most of foreign extraction, have been arrested by the Canadian authorities co-operating with the civilian police. It is understood that these men will be brought to London and lodged in the Bow street station.

Later on Thursday numbers of the men paraded in Rhyll. They made noisy demonstrations but committed no damage.

A large number of men wrecked the stores building and thousands of loaves of bread were trampled into the mud. The women's auxiliary quarters were then rushed and the women's clothes carried off. The rioters seized stores of ammunition, fired on the officers' quarters and then began a march in the direction of Abergele, but were held up. A staff officer flew from the war office in London by air plane and addressed the men declaring that their grievance regarding demobilization especially which caused the outbreak should be immediately removed. He declared that ten thousand men would be away by the week after next and that four transports would be placed at the disposal of the colonials.

SPARTACANS TAKE TELEGRAPH OFFICE. LONDON, March 7.—When Spartacus forces captured the main telegraph office in Berlin Thursday, the members of the American Red Cross mission were endangered by the shooting, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Berlin. Colonel Taylor ordered the women with the mission to seek safety in the Palace hotel.

The American mission to look after the welfare of prisoners entrenched itself in the Hotel Adlon on behind a battery of machine guns. The battle for the telegraph office the dispatch adds was the worst Berlin has seen.

Go to the polls and vote next Tuesday. Do not try to throw the responsibility on others and then find fault with the choice.

A conference of prominent Republican leaders who are sometimes classified as progressives, is soon to be held in Chicago, to talk about party affairs. It is hoped that in the preparations for the next national campaign that all party differences of the past will be eliminated. The times call for definite and hearty co-operation of all Republicans and it is that very spirit that is going to make for party success in the next election.

In commenting upon an article appearing in the Journal yesterday the question was asked "Is there only one man in Jacksonville fitted to be mayor?" Modesty prevents our replying that there is a plenty of good material in a newspaper office on West State street.

A census estimate indicates that Chicago can properly be credited with a population of 3,000,000 people. That will improve the classification of the metropolis and make it a close second for New York. Should the western metropolis ever surpass New York in population figures, there are some New Yorkers who would immediately move west or else cross the Atlantic.

Show your interest in the welfare of your city by voting at the primary for the men who you think can accomplish the most for the community they will represent. Mr. Crabtree promises an economical administration and gives proof of his sincerity by promising to serve the city with out salary.

"Red" Hare has come back and once more is in the county jail where he has so often before had a cell. Hare made his escape a few months ago after he had been found guilty on a larceny charge, and was being escorted back to jail. He took the chance, made his getaway, but evidently couldn't wholly break the ties which bind him to Jacksonville, and so once more is under arrest. It is one of the strange facts in connection with criminals of his class that after they make a bold strike for liberty and secure it, that a few months later they almost certainly return. It is a fact proven by the police annals but the reason is not definitely fixed.

John Bellatti is one of the ablest attorneys of the Morgan county bar. He served the city once before, as a young man, when he was so hampered that he could accomplish little. He is willing to serve the city now on a "no salary, free hand" platform. His reputation and acknowledged ability would be of very great value in the present condition of city affairs and a great aid and safeguard in developing and safe guarding the proposed water system. Can the people afford to miss the opportunity?

It is said that the present county board is in favor of an improvement plan to connect up the hard road east of the city with the Hardin avenue pavement. Five hundred feet of this roadway is outside the city limits and if the interest once had in the project by property owners can be revived there will not be much difficulty in raising the fund for the improvement. It is a piece of work that certainly should be done. The main roads approaching Jacksonville have long had the name of being generally in a less passable condition than the same roads at more distant points.

The primary election next Tuesday is one to select candidates for the different parties for city offices. The names of candidates selected at that time are to be placed upon the Australian ballot containing the names of all candidates, both Democratic and Republican, to be voted on finally in April, when choice must be made of the men to serve the city for the next two years. At the primary election one must avow themselves as allied to and supporters of either the Republican or Democratic parties. Democrats cannot vote for candidates on a Republican ticket or on any opposition ticket but must express a choice of the men or men whom they desire to have placed on the ticket of the party for whose candidates they have voted in the past.

A year ago there was great consternation in the south because of the movement of colored men to the north, attracted by the high salaries offered workers. Some big problems of housing came to the northern cities because of this movement and now a definite effort is being made to have the negroes return to the south country. There are said to be plenty of jobs open for them in the south, but it is going to be difficult to persuade these men to return to that section where the wages have been so much less and they have not been freely accorded their full rights of citizenship.

Hundreds of voters signed the communication asking Mr. Crabtree to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for mayor. Every one of them believed he was the man of the hour. The man fitted to bring order out of the chaotic condition of city affairs which prevails at this time. No one believes that he can at one stroke put the city on a cash basis, in the face of the $125,000 of floating indebtedness, but they do believe that with efficient support from a board of aldermen he can start it on the up grade and with time greatly reduce that debt. Let us all work together for a time and forget petty differences.

The prophecy of Judge Garey, president of the U. S. steel corporation that large business prosperity is just ahead of us will have much to do with bringing that very thing to pass. The steel industry is on the certain barometers of business conditions and it will inspire the country with confidence to hear Judge Garey's statement. There is more psychology about business activity than most people realize and when there are prophecies of activity and firm expressions of faith in the future, these very things go a long way in accomplishing that very activity. Judge Garey said on this very point: "There is ahead of us large business prosperity. We may hasten or retard its progress, depending on our attitude. We must be resolute, fair-minded and confident. We must have faith in ourselves, in each other and in our country."

The selection of aldermanic candidates should not be overlooked at this time. Study the character of the man offering, study their past and their personal traits so far as they affect the position to which they aspire. Select them as you would select a man for a position of trust in your own affairs. To be an alderman of the city of Jacksonville is to fill a place of responsibility and trust. The coming years should be important ones in the history of the place.

There is sound sense in Raymond Robins' suggestion that America should make a thorough investigation of conditions in Russia before agreeing to intervention there. Mr. Robins has some first hand information about the general conditions in Russia because of his visit there with the American Red Cross mission. He does not pretend to know about the exact conditions now but as a result of his stay in Russia he believes that the reports of chaos, ruin and starvation are not well enough verified to merit the expenditure of American money and lives at this time. It is interesting in this connection to note that Mr. Robins may speak in Jacksonville at an early date at the community forum.

A new era of success and prosperity is proposed for Jacksonville. Every voter should be able to see the advantages offered at this time by the candidacy of men like Mr. Crabtree.

Every man to whom the city is owing a dollar has a more or less selfish reason for desiring the selection of Ed Crabtree as a candidate for mayor. He desires to see the affairs of the city placed on the up grade, so that there may be some chance of his getting the monies due him.

Why is it that officers of every bank in the city signed the petition asking Mr. Crabtree to become a candidate for mayor? Because they recognized his financial ability and knew he was a man to be trusted to give the best there was in him to any undertaking or responsibility he accepted.

There is an ordinance on the statute books of the city prohibiting the posting of bills or placards on telegraph or telephone poles. But who pays any attention to the laws of the city?

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

LONESOME
I'm lonesome when the winter ends; the winter takes away my friends; by twos and threes and scores; they live through summer, spring and fall, but winter comes, with bier and pall, and stops their earthly chores. Methinks this winter was the worst that ever happened, last and first, it filled so many graves; a hundred friends have gone to sleep in couches narrow, cold and deep, out where the brown grass waves. A hundred dear old friends are gone; no more they'll gossip on the lawn, or in the Blue Front store; I'm lonesome—for old friends I yearn, I look for them at every turn, but see my friends no more. An old guest cannot make new friends, as down the sunset slope he winds, with halting steps and slow; the more the bells of evening ring, the more his soul's affections cling to friends of long ago. The winter bore my friends away; I lost a comrade every day, and some days two or three; I wonder why death's angel comes to steal my friends, with muffled drums, and why he sidesteps me?

STATEMENT BY MR. EHNIE
Editorial Journal:
I am a candidate for alderman on the Republican ticket in the 4th ward. If nominated and elected I am willing to serve on the "no salary plan." The war taught us to give our time by the hour, day, and months for government work, not that we had more time, but it was needed. I consider at this time that Jacksonville needs city officials who are willing to give the best service to the welfare of our city, as they did for their country.

I was born and reared in Jacksonville, have always had the best interest of the city at heart and will use every effort to get it on a sound business basis. I am heartily in favor of the new water works proposition and will encourage manufacturing and industrial enterprises in coming to our city to give employment to our labor. I favor Jacksonville labor at all time and believe that our city employees should receive their pay at one hundred cents on the dollar. My idea is for each one of us in trade our hammer for a horn with the words boost and blow for the best city in the world, Jacksonville.

If you feel that I am the man for the office, not only vote yourself but work and have your friends vote and I will appreciate it. Thanking you in advance for any favors you may show me on March 11, I am Yours very truly,
Charles F. Ehnies.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS
DEFEND BERLIN

BERLIN, Thursday, March 6.—(By the Associated Press.) Government troops began an attack today from all sides on the center of the city, and made brilliant progress. The attack was for the purpose of relieving police headquarters. A column from the west progressed to within a block of police headquarters in two hours. It is believed that the column succeeded in relieving the besieged garrison at police headquarters at 6:30 o'clock tonight had not yet received any information on that point.

Between 200 and 300 persons were killed or wounded. The casualties were largely among spectators.

The spectators, despite all warning, persisted in staying to see the fighting. The casualties were comparatively light.

There was very little organized coherent opposition by the Republican guards and Spartaean marines. They were caught by surprise without efficient leadership and were unable to check the attack of the well disciplined government forces.

COMBINATION SALE
HELD AT WHITE HALL

A Number of Farmers Dispose of Stock at Griswold Farm—White Hall News Notes.

White Hall, March 7.—A combination sale of live stock and farm machinery was held Thursday on the Geo. C. Griswold farm on Apple Creek Prairie, four miles southwest of White Hall. The principal offering was the dairy herd of George Halbert, consisting of 35 cows, and they brought prices ranging from $8 to $165. Mr. Halbert is compelled to give up dairymaking for the present at least on account of changing his location. The sale totaled about $4,000. Others having articles on sale were Elmer Griswold, L. G. Griswold and George Berline.

Harry Goodisby is suffering with a broken leg. He was felling a tree for post timber near Carrollton, and the trunk kicked back over the stump and struck his leg.

Mrs. C. E. Stetson, who is taking a leading part in promoting the planting of memorial trees in memory of deceased soldiers, authorized the statement today that the sentiment favors locating the trees on the soldiers' monument grounds, and that the committees representing the various women's organizations would probably decide the matter by Saturday.

The names of Rev. E. C. Lucas and A. F. Sweet were inadvertently omitted from the list of four-minute men of White Hall, published Friday.

Assist in Securing Bonus

Louis Goodwin, chairman of the White Hall Red Cross, in response to repeated inquiries on the part of returned soldiers as to the method of procedure in obtaining the sixty dollars bonus that was not paid at the time of discharge, states that the local Red Cross chapter will aid in every possible way in obtaining the bonus from the government, but that no official information has yet been received on which to base action. This statement by the local Red Cross head will be good news to the soldiers who have waited patiently for instructions on how they are to get their bonus. So far as information is now available soldiers and sailors discharged since the declaration of war should write to the zone finance officer, Lemon Building, Washington, D. C., stating service, date discharged, present address, and enclose original discharge papers. Discharge papers should be registered with the county clerk at Carrollton before sending them away as a matter of safety in case the original papers should be lost in the mail. The original discharge paper will be returned from Washington with the $60 check. The certified copy may be made by any notary. The Red Cross will assist in preparing copies of discharge papers to be certified, or assist in any other way.

Section 1406 of the Revenue Act, approved February 24, 1919, authorized the payment of a bonus of sixty dollars to officers and soldiers of the army upon honorable separation from active service by discharge, resignation or otherwise. The bonus is not payable to the heirs or representatives of any deceased soldier.

The law will be amended at this session of the legislature.

A REMARKABLE PROPHECY

Mrs. Charles Clampt was the following clipping which was the property of her mother, Mrs. Lucy Drake of Elkhardt:

In 1824 there lived in Louisville, Ky., a Presbyterian minister named Bolden, who prophesied that in 1846 and 1847 there would be a three years' war in the United States with another war in 1861-1865. He also prophesied that in 1870-71 there would be the greatest destruction of life and property ever known, while in 1913 or 1914 would come the final dissolution of things. These prophecies are now in the hands of William Miner, aged 82, of Louisville. All but the last one has been fulfilled.

The writer doesn't recall any special destruction in 1870-71 and the end of the world did not come in 1913 or 1914 but there was surely a great war begun.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH BROTHERHOOD

The first meeting of the Christian church brotherhood was held last evening and was well attended. A good supper was well enjoyed and after all had partaken to their satisfaction the meeting was most satisfactorily entertained by Lieut. A. F. Ewert, who told of some of the thrilling experiences he had while across the seas. The story of this eloquent young divine is admirably told and never fails to please all who have the good fortune to hear it. He was at his best on this occasion and all were much pleased with what he said.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

AT STATE HOSPITAL

Varied Entertainment Features Provided for Patients Picture Shows Given Twice Each Week — Experiment With Sunday Services.

Mention has been made several times of the vocational work which is being developed at Jacksonville State hospital under the general direction of Dr. E. L. Hill, superintendent. Miss Hoppe has been in charge of this work for a number of months past and the results have been very gratifying. The hundreds of dolls distributed at Christmas time represented one line of work in this department, done by patients and Miss Hoppe is directing work along various lines, with the double purpose of improving the mental and physical condition of patients, and also producing articles for use in the hospital which result in a saving to the state.

Sunday Programs

But the activities of Miss Hoppe's department are not confined to work, and include a program of entertainment for each day. Something new is being tried out in the matter of Sunday services. The morning mass is celebrated this month each Sunday from 8:30 to 9:30 by Father Sloan. Afterward from 9:30 to 10:30 there is Sunday school on the ward and from 10:30 to 11 there is Sunday school in the chapel for parole patients. At this latter school the program is quite similar to that followed at the churches. There are songs and responsive readings, and the lesson for the day is read aloud. Afterward the lesson story is emphasized and this is followed by a series of questions. Afterward comes a review which is given by Miss Hoppe. Members of the school usually repeat a Psalm just before the benediction is pronounced.

In the chapel in the afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30 o'clock there are services which this month are led by Rev. E. B. Landis. From 7 to 8 o'clock there is singing on all the wards, led by the attendants. A program of this kind has been arranged for each Sunday in March, with different persons serving as the leaders.

For the other days of this month the programs are of course secular and include dancing, music, amateur theatricals, picture shows, vaudeville and community singing.

Entertainment Features

Yesterday afternoon two picture shows were given with a musical vaudeville act in between. Practically all vaudeville is given by patients and investigation has shown that there are a great many of them able to do "turns" which are of interest and entertaining for the assemblages of patients. There were also two picture shows last night, the purpose of having the four shows in the afternoon and evening being to provide for the entertainment of a large group of patients. It is possible by this arrangement to give practically every patient the opportunity to enjoy this kind of an entertainment. Today an amateur play, "The American Harem" will be given by patients. The cast includes eight persons. Monday evening there will be a masquerade dance in Amusement hall and Tuesday a picture show with musical selections and readings.

For Wednesday evening the program provides for community singing which will be led by Mrs. E. L. Hill. The program of songs includes those made popular by the war, together with old time favorites like "Dixie Land", "Old Black Joe" and of course America will be sung. On March 15 there will be a candy pull in the afternoon and another one in the evening. Then there will be games and contests.

March 22 there will be a progressive party in the afternoon and another in the evening, with prizes awarded the winners, and there will be refreshments including sandwiches and coffee. Programs for other days are varied, but the ones quoted give an adequate idea of how the entertainment feature is being developed for the benefit and entertainment of the patients.

WESTMINSTER GUILD

Westminster Guild met Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. C. Noyes at her home on Grove street. There was an unusually large attendance and the program was especially helpful. Miss Phillips presented a paper on "The Gospel of John" in which she gave a study of this book which developed an interesting discussion in which its thoughts and lessons were brought out in a way new and forceful. Mrs. Noyes served excellent refreshments and the afternoon was one of pleasure and profit.

A GOOD WAY TO SAVE

"In times like these when economy is so essential, I know of no better way to save than to have the entire family shod with Neolin Soles," writes B. F. Williams, Rochester, N. Y.

In his letter Mr. Williams tells of a pair of Neolin-soled shoes which he has worn constantly for four months. "The soles still look like new," he says. "You, too, will think there is no better way to save, when once you have tried shoes with these long-wearing, comfortable, and waterproof soles. They come in many styles for every member of the family. And good repair shops carry Neolin Soles for re-soles. They are made scientifically by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heel—guaranteed to outwear all other heels."

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

The 900th anniversary of Negro's arrival in this country was fittingly celebrated at Bethel A. M. E. church Thursday evening under the auspices of McCabe church. A large crowd of both races was present and applauded each number. Hermes Zimmerman, the young negro composer appeared for the first time to a Jacksonville audience. His technique was exceptionally good. His negro spiritual "The Chief Cornerstone" and "America First and Forever" were decidedly taking.

NON-BOLSHEVIK OFFICIALS ARRESTED

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Vladivostok has been thrown into a commotion by the arrest and deportation of six non-Bolshevik municipal officials by General Ivanoff Kinnoff, commander of the Vladivostok military district under the Omsk-Siberian government.

The state department issued this statement regarding the arrests: "The state department was advised today from Vladivostok that Russian local authorities there had arrested six non-Bolshevik members of the Zemstvo and had deported them to the frontier. This action was taken without instructions from either Admiral Kolchak or the Omsk government but was under orders of the local commander, General Ivanoff Kinnoff, in charge of the Russian in that particular maritime district. The alleged charge of the against the men was political activity. It is believed here that the incident will be straightened out as the only explanation suggested here and that unofficially is that there are a number of Russian officials who still feel that they have absolutely arbitrary power to do as they please."

WILSON TAKING LIFE EASY ON RETURN TRIP

WASHINGTON, March 7.—(By the Associated Press).—President Wilson today expressed himself as greatly pleased at the outcome of the election in the twenty second Pennsylvania congressional district, particularly as the league of nations was made an issue. The president sent a wireless message to Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary, as follows: "Please extend my cordial congratulations to Mr. Wilson (J. H. Wilson) Democrat, just elected in Pennsylvania, and express my gratification that he won upon the issue of the league of nations."

President Wilson is thoroughly refreshed by the rest he has had but, under protest as he laughingly expressed it, continued to obey the edict of Rear-Admiral Cary T. HOPE TO PREVENT INCREASE IN FLOUR

NEW YORK, March 7.—The United States food administration grain corporation announced tonight that on March 15 it will begin sale of its surplus wheat holdings in American milling centers in an effort to prevent an increase in flour prices.

Julius H. Barnes, president of the corporation said the department of agriculture report issued today indicated that the "crop of 1918 will provide no more than sufficient to meet our home needs and the foreign requirements falling upon us," and added that already mills were experiencing such difficulty in obtaining wheat for milling that they were offering as high as 10 to 15 cents above the government's guaranteed price to the farmers.

"The grain corporation," he said, "by using part of its accumulated stock for resale in the United States hopes to relieve the public from any material advance in the price of flour."

The government wheat, Mr. Barnes said, will be offered for sale on and after March 15 at such milling centers as Duluth, Kansas City, Chicago and St. Louis on the basis of cost plus accumulated charges.

EXAMINATION OF O'LEARY FINISHED

NEW YORK, March 7.—Examination of Jeremiah O'Leary on trial in federal court here on a charge of sedition was finished late today. It is believed the case would go to the jury by the last of next week.

Under a searching cross-examination today, O'Leary differentiated between his hatred for England and his devotion to America. The defendant admitted that in 1916 and early in 1917 he was instrumental in conducting a campaign for a food embargo to stop the scandal, which was caused by making it possible for foreigners to buy American food supplies more cheaply than Americans. He regarded this as a defense of American rights and not as an aid to Germany he said.

Asked about a statement in one of his speeches branding reports of German atrocities in Belgium as "English lies," he replied: "It was a statement of fact. He added that he was not seeking to defend the German invasion of Belgium. While he was in favor of a declaration of war against Germany by the United States by this country "in the same way Japan was conducting it—with regard to her own interests first."

He said he regarded a draft act as an act of tyranny.

CUBAN STRIKE MAY END TODAY

Havana, March 7.—Representatives of the unions involved in the general strike visited President Menocal today and asked him to act as mediator in the controversy. As the president is known to be willing to act in such capacity if both sides desire it but only on condition that the men who struck in sympathy with the building trades unions return to work, there is a possibility that the general strike may end tomorrow leaving the fight of the building trade unions for increased wages and shorter hours the only question to be settled. The city continues quiet.

Paris, Thursday, March 6.—A Rome dispatch to the Temps quotes Monsignor Puenauti as saying that it is understood at the Vatican that the union of Christian churches has abandoned the idea of calling a world conference and has invited leaders of different Christian communities to formulate minimum programs to which they believe they must adhere in the eventuality of a union of churches.

DEMAND INQUEST

Chicago, March 7.—Attorneys Marcus Pulaski of Detroit and Fred Bernstein appeared at the office of the coroner today to demand on behalf of the family of Samuel B. Moscovitz, also known as Moss, a sailor, whose home was in Detroit and who plunged to his death last Saturday from an eighth story window of a building housing the local naval intelligence bureau that an inquest be held. The family, the lawyers asserted, is not satisfied with the evidence at the naval hearing that Moscovitz's death was suicidal.

CHICAGO PASSES 3,000,000 MARK.

Chicago, March 7.—Chicago has passed the 3,000,000 population mark according to estimates made today of an official of the concern that prints the city directory. If confirmed by the next federal census it may permit Chicago to displace Paris as one of the largest cities of the world. The estimate was said to have been based on postal statistics.

WILSON TAKING LIFE EASY ON RETURN TRIP

WASHINGTON, March 7.—(By the Associated Press).—President Wilson today expressed himself as greatly pleased at the outcome of the election in the twenty second Pennsylvania congressional district, particularly as the league of nations was made an issue. The president sent a wireless message to Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary, as follows: "Please extend my cordial congratulations to Mr. Wilson (J. H. Wilson) Democrat, just elected in Pennsylvania, and express my gratification that he won upon the issue of the league of nations."

President Wilson is thoroughly refreshed by the rest he has had but, under protest as he laughingly expressed it, continued to obey the edict of Rear-Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his personal physician, against work. He passed his time this afternoon and evening in walking the deck and other forms of recreation. The president autographed a photograph of himself for the George Washington, inscribing it: "To my comrades."

HOPE TO PREVENT INCREASE IN FLOUR

NEW YORK, March 7.—The United States food administration grain corporation announced tonight that on March 15 it will begin sale of its surplus wheat holdings in American milling centers in an effort to prevent an increase in flour prices.

Julius H. Barnes, president of the corporation said the department of agriculture report issued today indicated that the "crop of 1918 will provide no more than sufficient to meet our home needs and the foreign requirements falling upon us," and added that already mills were experiencing such difficulty in obtaining wheat for milling that they were offering as high as 10 to 15 cents above the government's guaranteed price to the farmers.

"The grain corporation," he said, "by using part of its accumulated stock for resale in the United States hopes to relieve the public from any material advance in the price of flour."

The government wheat, Mr. Barnes said, will be offered for sale on and after March 15 at such milling centers as Duluth, Kansas City, Chicago and St. Louis on the basis of cost plus accumulated charges.

EXAMINATION OF O'LEARY FINISHED

NEW YORK, March 7.—Examination of Jeremiah O'Leary on trial in federal court here on a charge of sedition was finished late today. It is believed the case would go to the jury by the last of next week.

Under a searching cross-examination today, O'Leary differentiated between his hatred for England and his devotion to America. The defendant admitted that in 1916 and early in 1917 he was instrumental in conducting a campaign for a food embargo to stop the scandal, which was caused by making it possible for foreigners to buy American food supplies more cheaply than Americans. He regarded this as a defense of American rights and not as an aid to Germany he said.

Asked about a statement in one of his speeches branding reports of German atrocities in Belgium as "English lies," he replied: "It was a statement of fact. He added that he was not seeking to defend the German invasion of Belgium. While he was in favor of a declaration of war against Germany by the United States by this country "in the same way Japan was conducting it—with regard to her own interests first."

He said he regarded a draft act as an act of tyranny.

U. S. STEAMER AGRONCD

The crew was reported still aboard the vessel, but breeches buoy had been rigged up and tugs from Norfolk are due to reach the steamer at daylight tomorrow.

UNION OF CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

days in the history of Turkey. One of the greatest in July, 1908 when the young Turks came into control and commenced a new order of things. Under the old order travel was restricted so that persons could not even leave their native villages without a permit. All letters must be censored and over each man was another spy so that it was almost impossible to accomplish anything. Even the army was divided into three groups and one pitted against the other. Even the smallest kind of meetings and gatherings were not permitted except under the closest scrutiny, and all this served to perpetuate the power of the sultan.

"When the young Turks came into power all this was changed and the result was better roads, some schools and great improvement generally. The sultan would have no telephones or electric cars because they used dynamite which to him was like dynamite which disturbed emperors, and he would have no asphalt pavements and rubber tires because they were so noisy.

"The second great new day for Turkey was in 1912 when the Balkan states began war on Turkey and while it failed it probably led to the great war and freed 6,000,000 people from Turkish dominion.

"The last great new day Turkey was Nov. 13, last, when the allied ships sailed thru the Dardanelles to Constantinople and demanded the surrender of the Turks and ended their abominable rule and liberated the people whom they had oppressed.

Constantinople. "The great problem now is regarding the custody of Constantinople. Mesopotamia, Palestine and the Sinai Peninsula will probably go to England, the Syria and Silesia to France. The Armenians must have some kind of autonomous government, leaving a large portion to be taken over by the United States.

"Why has Turkey held Constantinople so long? The geographical position is of great power and the jealousy of the European nations has prevented any one from taking possession, for whatever power controls Constantinople controls three continents. Russia tried to get possession but Napoleon said 'No' because who ruled Constantinople would rule the world, and so they have left the Turks in possession rather than to give to any one else.

"Why is the Turk so inefficient and non-progressive? By nature he is indifferent to everything that is good. He is a fatalist and hence will incur any danger, hardship or fight like a demon, saying if he is to die he will die anyhow, and if not he will live through it. The Turk should not have been Mohammedan, and it is a shame to Christianity that he is so. The Turk is a natural parasite, sucking the blood of other nations and living in infelucence and ease. There is no place in the world for a Turkish government.

"In view of all the facts and present conditions it is simply impossible to realize the great opportunities now in that part of the land for Christianity in general and the Congregational church in particular. By agreement with other denominations Turkey and the near nations have been assigned to the American board of our church and great necessity exists. Of the $500,000 in property our church owned there four-fifths have been destroyed.

Look to U. S. "Turkey is humiliated and feels there is no hope except from the United States. The Armenians also look to us as their protectors. The missionaries are going back as fast as they can, but we need a great many more than are on the way. 5,000,000 ask us to bring them the bread of life and also bread and clothing for their famished bodies. The doors are even open for their hinges. Jews and Moslems beg us to come. Nearly a hundred years of work there has given the people great confidence in us. Time and again during the great war and great need money would not trust it to any one but United States missionaries who had the safe keeping of hundreds of thousands, they knowing that it would be honestly returned as it was. At one time our missionaries were able to finance the Standard Oil, the Singer Sewing Machine Co. and the American embassy from funds deposited with them for safe keeping.

"We cannot be faithful to this great responsibility. People there are crying out for the bread of life which we only can give them. The doors are open as never before and missionaries and money both are needed for the work they do cannot be done by any one else. Our government is setting up a mission to Constantinople. France is transporting them free to Marseilles and the British government to Constantinople, all realizing the great value of our work. The blood of the martyrs calls us to make every effort to carry the good news and to these people.

"The challenge is to the Congregational church for this work and we cannot resist the cry of the starving millions who are waiting for the bread of life and for the necessities of bodily existence which we can furnish better than any one else. Shall we rise to the task?"

The address was heard with deep interest and many gathered about Dr. Ryan socially to hear more. He will be at the Dunlap House until 11 o'clock today.

LITERBERRY BAPTIST AID SOCIETY MET

Profitable Session Held Thursday at Home of Mrs. Ona Crum—Charles Mullens Buys Frank Hopkins Property—Other Literary News Notes.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church met at "Walnut Brook farm" on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ona Crum hostess. About twenty members were present and three visitors. The order of exercises follows:

Song, "I Love to Tell the Story." Scripture reading—Mrs. Ellis Thompson.

Music by the new Edison Victrola. At the business session arrangements were made for a lunch to be served at the A. G. Lind sale at Arcadia on the 18th. This was settled by the two societies, Baptist and Methodist, who will unite and serve together, dividing the proceeds between the societies. Mrs. Lind belongs to both, and this will be a good way to meet the members of both societies before she goes to her new home in Iowa.

Refreshments were served at the proper time and consisted of ham sandwiches, vegetable salad, olives, escalloped oysters, pickles, fruit salad, cream puffs and coffee.

This was a good meeting, for everybody had a fine time.

Mrs. C. A. Beavers who has been sick with pneumonia, is convalescing.

Harold Lee Daniels, our little four year old neighbor, has been staying of nights with J. M. Litter at Shady Lawn. Harold says he thinks a lot of "uncle Jimmie" and is doing his part to keep him company.

Our reporter tells us that Charles Mullens has bought the Frank Hopkins property on Peoria boulevard and will occupy it at once, while Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins will move to Jacksonville.

The Misses Evaline Hull and Helen Young were visitors at Sunshine Cottage on Friday evening.

Alene Young has returned from a four days' visit at Sinclair while there she made her headquarters at Grandma Yancy's, and on the Hendersons and Farmers. While Alene was away, Miss Helen Young took her place at Maple Mound and assisted Mrs. W. W. Young in the housework.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Petefish of "Golden Green" drove their International car to Grace chapel neighborhood on Tuesday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glush.

The Mission Circle met on Friday week in the afternoon at Bonnie Doone cottage with Mrs. J. M. Daniels hostess; Song "Life's Railway." A good program was carried out, the subject, "Thou Shalt Surely Give Them a Possession" from Numbers 27-7.

The third chapter of the text book "Women Workers of the Orient" was read and the questions on the same answered fairly well. There were nine persons present to enjoy this good meeting; the day was so stormy, it was impossible for any one to come who lived at any distance. The offering was two dollars and thirty cents.

Refreshments of the very best were served at the usual time. The meeting closed by repeating Psalms, 2-8.

Oral Brook formerly from Sunny Brook farm, Arcadia, finished loading three cars with farming implements, household goods and live stock, on Tuesday and pulled out for his new home, Wren, Van Wert county, Ohio. The best wishes of all friends go with him.

All kinds of spring clothing and furnishings; Knoles'.

FLAW IN COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL LAW

Removed That State Supreme Court Has Found Flaw in Law—Bolshevism Discussed in White Hall Church—Sewer Pipe Co. Resumes Operations—Other Green County News.

White Hall, March 7.—Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Eunice Birdsell Wayman, who was shot last week in the Singleton hospital at Jacksonville early Friday morning, were held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Birdsell, near the Singleton store. A brief discourse was delivered by Rev. E. C. Lucas, pastor of the Christian church, and the singing was by members of the church choir. The interment was in the White Hall cemetery.

The remains were brought to White Hall Friday noon, after a coroner's jury had been empaneled and viewed the remains. Coroner C. A. Rose of Morgan county arrived on the same train, and subpoenaed witnesses to appear at the taking of testimony in Jacksonville commencing at 1 o'clock Monday.

The Greene county grand jury resumed sessions at Carrollton Monday to hear additional evidence against Mrs. Mabel Austin, charged with the killing, and the indictment will be ready for circuit court Tuesday, when the trial of Mrs. Austin is scheduled to begin. It is not certain what the line of defense will be. Little credence is given to the report that Mrs. Austin will plead guilty and ask for the mercy of the court. Rather, she appears to be well prepared to fight the case, and some startling developments are expected.

White Hall Notes.

Preparations were begun Monday for a resumption of operations in all departments of the White Hall Sewer Pipe & Stone-ware Co., and by the end of the week the entire working force of upwards of 200 men will again be on duty. The men have been idle for about two months.

The weekly dance in the K. of P. hall Friday evening was given by the married folks, and it was a delightful affair. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Greene of Roodhouse, were present from out of town. Music was furnished by an orchestra from Alton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dillman are on their return from California on account of the dangerous illness of the former's mother, Mrs. Anna Dillman.

The proceedings to bring about a vote on the community high school proposition are still being delayed, and it has leaked out that the state supreme court has found a flaw in the law that has knocked it out. However, the opinion of the court has not been given out, and further developments are awaited with hopefulness. The local school situation demands action that will provide additional room before the next term, and some kind of a proposition will be worked out in a short time.

ILLINOIS WON AND LOST IN TOURNAMENT

Defeated in First Game By Hedding—Won Evening Game from Carthage By Score of 18 to 16—Play Hedding in Semifinals this Morning.

Illinois College won and lost in the State tournament at Bloomington Friday. The first game was lost to Hedding by a score of 21 to 23 and the second with Carthage Friday evening was won by a score of 18 to 16. This puts Illinois in the semi-finals, when they play Hedding this morning.

The afternoon game should have been won also and was lost thru inability of Illinois to throw foul baskets. The score at the end of the first half was 15 to 9 in favor of Illinois and they seemed to have Hedding on the run. However, Hedding came thru in the second half and by tossing of several foul baskets finally tied the score. A few minutes overtime period was played and Hedding won thru a basket and won.

In the evening game Illinois lacked Carthage, determined not only to wipe out the defeat by that team at Carthage, a few weeks ago but also to remain a contender in the tournament.

The men played a fast and furious game and the only score made by Carthage in the first half was two foul baskets. The players were keyed up to a high pitch, and fouls were frequent.

In the second half Andrew was sent to the side lines for personal fouls. Three minutes before time was called in the second half, Farrell also committed his fourth personal foul and was sent to the shower bath. Coach Harmon said over the telephone that Farrell's foul saved the game for Illinois as Peard, the tall center of Carthage had dribbled down the floor and had the ball right under the basket when he was stopped by Farrell. Swain took Andrews place and Harvey subbed for Farrell.

This morning Illinois will tackle Hedding again and Coach Harmon said the men were filled with confidence after their win over Carthage and will try to even accounts with Hedding. If they win this morning they will be in the finals in the secondary division and will play the winner of the Charleston-McKendree contest. The scores:

STORKERSON'S ARCTIC EXPEDITION FAILS

(By The Associated Press.)
FAIRBANKS, Alaska, March 7.—Storkerson's Arctic expedition which made its home on a floating Arctic ice pack eight months, did not float west from Alaska to Siberia as it planned to do, but was carried far north and then back again, according to Gus Mesiak, one of the party who has arrived at Fort Yukon, Alaska, after landing recently and journeying over a snow trail from the Arctic Coast.

Storkerson, Mesiak said, found no land when the party passed over a spot north of Alaska marked "Kannan Land" on charts. "The ice pack carried its passengers almost to the 74 parallel. At the most northerly point reached soundings exceeded 1,500 meters. This, it was thought indicated that new land yet to be found and explored lies north of Alaska in an area now described on maps as "Unexplored."

Storkerson probably will arrive at Fort Yukon next month.

Literberry S. S. Class Gave Oyster Supper.

The Sunday school class of Literberry Christian church taught by James Petefish gave an oyster supper last evening in the basement of the church which was largely attended. This is an annual event and is usually given during the holiday season, but postponement was necessary this year on account of the flu epidemic. There is no charge made for the supper but persons attending are given an opportunity of joining in the free will offering to the young men composing the class. The offering last night was sufficient to cover all expenses in connection with the supper and this was deemed quite satisfactory by the young men. The Spillman brothers of Jacksonville gave an excellent musical program in the course of the evening, and this feature of the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Members of the class are especially grateful to these musicians for the selections rendered.

DISCUSSES PHASES OF TURKISH PROBLEM

E. C. Ryan Heard in Informing Address at Illinois College Chapel Exercises Friday—Addresses Rotary Club.

The Turkish problem in its various phases was discussed in an able manner by E. C. Ryan at the Illinois College chapel exercises Friday morning. The speaker is now engaged in making a series of lectures in this country, in the effort to have the people understand their duty in connection with the settlement of the Turkish situation. Mr. Ryan speaks from a first hand knowledge of the subject, as he was for five years a resident of Turkey, where he was engaged in relief work following the Balkan wars. He returned to the United States in May, 1916, and has spent the greater part of the time since then in touring the country and making addresses at various cities.

Mr. Ryan is of the opinion that the conflict between Christianity and Mohammedanism is one which must be adjusted in the right way at the peace conference, or another world war inside of a half century will be a certainty. The disposition of Turkey is a point, about which there has been much controversy. Some have proposed that the Turkish government be entirely deprived of power, and others believe that Turkey should be governed by the great powers thru a joint commission. The objection to the latter plan is the rivalries which would be certain to cause difficulties. The speaker pointed out that whatever the final disposition of the Turkish problem, the United States must take a hand and assume her part of the undertaking.

Constantinople with its cosmopolitan population, Mr. Ryan called "the Grab Bag of Europe" and declared that this city is really the seat of most of the conspiracies formed in recent days. Mr. Ryan was also heard in a fine address before the Rotary club at the Pacific hotel Friday noon. His address at this time was on the subject of Turkey and his remarks were heard with great interest by the men present.

CHANGES AT PASSAVANT HOSPITAL

As is well known, Miss Evelyn Kimmel, superintendent of Passavant hospital, resigned that position and left for Chicago. The institution is fortunate in being able to secure Miss Velma Davies as acting superintendent. She is the one who so capably and acceptably filled the position when Miss Venner was away in 1914 and hence is by no means new to the work of the institution. Miss Della Davis has been secured to take the place of acting directress of nurses so the work of this important institution will go forward without interruption.

J. D. ANDREWS DEAD AT INDIANAPOLIS

Brother of F. J. Andrews of This City—Was Prominent Lumber Merchant of Mattoon.

The Mattoon Journal-Gazette of March 1 contains a notice of the death of J. D. Andrews, a prominent lumber merchant of that city. The deceased was a brother of F. J. Andrews of this city and had frequently visited here. The paper says:

Jesse D. Andrews, aged fifty-one years, one of Mattoon's most progressive and successful business men, passed away this morning at 2:50 o'clock at the Fletcher sanitarium at Indianapolis, where he went five weeks ago to rest and recuperate. Until a short time before death came the indications were that he was improving in health rapidly.

Death was due to paralysis of the heart. He had been in poor health for about two years, having been at death's door several times, these sinking spells having been followed by periods of much greater vitality. He went to the Battle Creek sanitarium, soon after the Mattoon tornado disaster, remaining there for six weeks or two months. His condition was so serious on his return home that he was kept for weeks under the care of a specialist, who gave him day and night attention.

In 1918 Mr. Andrews passed a few months at the Edgewater Beach Hotel at Chicago, and while there his health improved greatly. On his return to Mattoon early in the fall his condition was so much improved that he frequently went to his office for brief visits, an those who met him on the streets thought he had had a complete recovery.

No Funeral Plans. The body is expected to arrive here late this afternoon or tonight, and will be taken to the Andrews residence, 1517 Wabash avenue. Arrangements for the funeral will not be made until word is received from relatives residing at a distance. The services may not be held before Tuesday. These will be conducted from the home and will be as simple as possible, possibly private. Burial will be made in Dodge Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Andrews, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Snyder, went early this morning to Indianapolis, where they were joined by H. B. Snyder of Chicago, to accompany the remains to this city. Mrs. Harlan K. Snyder and baby arrived in Mattoon this afternoon.

Native of Lincoln. Jesse D. Andrews was the son of Baker P. Andrews of Lincoln, Ill., one of the leading lumber men of the country during his life. He was born in Lincoln on October 26, 1867, and was reared there, securing his education in the Lincoln public schools and Lincoln college.

In the early part of 1890, Mr. Andrews came to Mattoon to take over the management of the local lumber yard of Andrews Brothers, owners and operators of lumber yards at Mattoon, Canton and Jacksonville, the local yards having been established two years earlier.

A few years ago, Andrews Brothers dissolved the firm, each of the partners taking over the yard in his home town. Jesse D. Andrews, having had charge of the Mattoon yard, became its sole owner. F. J. Andrews became the owner of the Jacksonville yard and J. L. Andrews assumed ownership of the Canton yard.

Mr. Andrews, as manager and later as owner of the local yard, continued to make additions and improvements as business increased. It is now one of the best in the state, its business coming from far and near.

In addition to owning the local yard Mr. Andrews was secretary-treasurer of the Andrews Lumber and Milling Company, a corporation organized five or six years ago to operate lumber yards and mills at Chicago, Paxton and Charleston.

Mr. Andrews was classed as a "home man," his attentions after his long business hours being devoted almost entirely to his home and the members of his family. He was known as a substantial supporter of public enterprises and was interested in many charitable undertakings, subscribing freely to several organizations. He was affiliated with the local lodge of Elks and held membership

"RED" HARE, FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE CAPTURED

Was Captured Near Arenzville After Escaping from Officer Baker—Latter Shot Hare in Right Hand.

Lloyd (alias "Red") Hare, who has been a fugitive from justice since November 20, 1918, was captured near Arenzville late Friday afternoon by Sheriff Weatherford, Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Martin, Deputies Andrews and Wright, and Sergeant Kiloran.

Hare was convicted in the November term of the circuit court on November 20, 1918, of burglarizing the grocery store of Mackey and Davison, at the intersection of East North street and Illinois avenue.

After being found guilty by a jury he was being taken to jail by Sheriff Grant Graft. When the sheriff reached Broadway alley, adjacent to the Economy grocery store with his prisoner, Hare suddenly pushed the sheriff off the sidewalk and ran north thru Broadway alley and made his escape, the sheriff gave pursuit and fired several shots at the fleeing man.

Hare evidently left this part of the country and it was thought that he had quit Jacksonville for good. Evidently he was unable to remain away for Friday afternoon Officer Baker ran across him and Hare started to make his getaway. Officer Baker fired at Hare and the bullet took effect in his right hand. However, he managed to board a northbound coal drag on the Burlington and made his escape.

Officer Baker immediately notified headquarters, and Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Martin, Sheriff Weatherford, and Deputies Andrews and Wright, started for Concord in an automobile.

At Concord, the Sheriff and Commissioner Martin left the car and started to follow the railroad toward Arenzville. They found Hare at a camp fire about one mile and a half this side of Arenzville. He was taken into custody and the officers walked on to Arenzville with their prisoner.

The other members of the party were notified and took the car to Arenzville, and Hare was returned here Friday night and placed in the county jail. Sheriff Weatherford said last night that he would guarantee that Hare would not make his escape a second time.

Hare seems to be a habitual criminal. Since he was a boy he has been in almost constant trouble and has many times run afoul of the law. He has served a number of jail sentences and has been mixed up in various kinds of brawls. He undoubtedly is a menace to society and probably will not be shown much leniency when he comes before the court for sentence.

Income Tax Law Now Applies to Persons Earning $1,000 or More—Some Special Points.

Attention of all citizens is directed to the need for making payment of their income taxes by March 15.—As it takes a good deal of time to fill out the blanks, persons subject to the tax are urged to give the matter early attention. One fact to which bank-ers are now calling attention is that every individual or firm making payment of interest, salary, rent, etc., of $1,000 or more to any persons are required to make statement of that fact to the revenue department. Blanks are provided for these returns which are to be made to the commissioner of internal revenue in Washington. The purpose of these reports of course is to give the government information as to all persons who are subject to an income tax.

Attention has also been called to the fact that officers of church boards or trustees are required to report salaries paid to ministers if such salaries amount to $1,000 or more. Mention is made of this point because last year there were a number of church officers who failed to report and others made their reports on the last day, when the matter was brought to their attention. There are so many changes in the revenue law this year and income tax applies to so large a percentage of people, that it behooves everybody to investigate the facts about the law and thus see to it that they do not come into violation of the provisions.

BIG CROWDS AT THE RIALTO

Several hundred people were turned away from the Rialto theatre yesterday and were thus unable to see D. W. Griffith's "Hearts of the World" presented by Manager Johnson. There is to be a special matinee this morning and the regular matinee this afternoon. Mr. Johnson urges people so far as possible to witness the day-time programs and thus avoid the big crowd sure to come for the night entertainment.
